NUMB. 833

MONDAY, MARCH 6. 1738.

N^o. 841.

ACCORDING to Letters of the 5th of January, O. S. from Constantinople, the new Grand Vizier is preparing for a speedy Expedition to Oczakow, and to renew the Siege of that Place with an Army of about 200,000 Men, of whom one fourth are to be Christians and Asiatics. The latter of these have brought from Grand Cairo and Syria great Sums of Money, arising from the Arrears of old Taxes, and from others lately laid on for supporting the Expenses of the War. The Sultana, Mother to the Grand Seignor, has offered two thirds of her Wealth for the same Purpose; as has likewise the Muffi. In short, the Grand Seignor seems resolv'd to spare no Cost for the Recovery of that Place. As he is convinc'd that the European Method of attacking Places, is preferable to the old Ways which the Turks have been used to, he designs to employ in the Attack of Oczakow; a select Body of 20,000 Men, which consists chiefly of Rascians, Moldavians, and Deserters from the Christian Armies, and has been disciplin'd by the Count de Bonneval; and this is all the Use that has been made as yet of the Count's Talents; for his being a Foreigner, the Envy of the Turkish Generals, and the Suspicions that are natural to the Genius of the Porte, have hitherto proved invincible Obstacles to the Desire he had of obtaining the Command in Chief; which Disappointment is partly owing also to the Suspicions of the Turkish Clergy, who very much question whether Count Bonneval is sincerely attach'd to Mahometism. Thus the Command of the Siege of Oczakow, will be conferred on the new Grand Vizier, who never had the Title of General, nor was ever before at the Head of an Army.

The Letters of the 7th ult. O. S. from Petersburg say, that the Plan of the Operations of the next Campaign against the Infidels, has been communicated to the Emperor's Minister the Count de Odein, and that Count Munich is gone through Moscow with all speed for the Ukraine, to prevent an Invasion from the Tartars; but 'tis much to be fear'd he will come too late.

Those of the 15th ditto from Vienna say, that the Velt Marshal de Konigsberg, is preparing his Equipage with all Expedition to make the next Campaign, notwithstanding the ill State of his Health will scarce admit of it: That a Courier is arrived from Tuscany, who they pretend has brought News, that the Spaniards have considerably reinforced the Garrisons of Orbitello, and other Places belonging to them on the Coasts of the Great Duchy; and that 'twas reported, they shortly expected a great Body of Troops.

They write from Uim, in Bavaria, that they have begun to examine the Burgo-master Harldorffer, who was could induce him to commit so desperate an Action as to shoot the Burgo-master Besseler in Council. He has alleg'd three Reasons for it, which are thought very insufficient. The first is, that he had observed the Deceased made it his Business to vex and tease him upon every Occasion, that he had been grievously affronted and insulted by him, and that he has kept a Journal of all the Injuries he has received from him for ten Years past. The second is, that the Deceased opposed him when he put up for Burgo-master. And the third is, that he hinder'd his Son-in-Law from being admitted into the Town Council. The Publick is very attentive to see what will be the Consequences of this Affair.

The Letters from Dresden of the 19th ult. O. S. mention the Arrival of the Spanish Ambassador, the Count de Fuencalra, there from Vienna; and the Death of Alexander de Milles de Scharffenberg, President of the Privy Council, who died there the 11th ult. at Night, at 83 Years of Age. He was formerly Governor to the King when he was only Prince Royal, and accompanied him in his Travels to foreign Parts. This Gentleman had such personal Merit, and had done such substantial Services to the Electorate of Saxony, that he is very much lamented by the King, the Queen, the whole Court, and all that knew him, for his Learning, good Behaviour, and solid Virtue. When this Prince was under his Tuition, he lov'd him, was inseparable from him, and received his Advice with all the Docility imaginable.

The Republick of Poland continues resolv'd to remain Neuter with regard to the War between the Emperor, Russia, and the Porte, and therefore carefully avoids every Opportunity to give the Grand Seignor any Umbrage. The Motives of this Conduct, are founded upon the Inconveniencies that might result from a Proceeding inconsistent with such Neutrality; and they apprehend, that by declaring against the Turks, Poland may become a Theatre of War, and that the Republick will be but a small Gainer by the Bargain: Besides, a great many Noblemen of the Kingdom, whose Lands are situate near the Confines of Turkey, would run the Hazard of being ruin'd by the Enemies Incurfions. 'Tis moreover observ'd, that in a Circumstance of this Nature, the Republick would be oblig'd to call in Foreign Aids, and would have all the Reason to apprehend the Return of the same Difficulties that happened during the last Interregnum.

Letters of the 7th ult. O. S. from Madrid, mention a Report, that Orders have been dispatched to all the Officers of the Marines, to repair to their Posts before the End of this Month. They add, that several Murders and Robberies have been lately committed in that City, for which the chief Criminals have been apprehended, and some of them Persons of honourable Families; and that of this Number were 7 or 8 Women, Receivers of stolen Goods, who were whipp'd and branded, and afterwards imprison'd within strong Walls: Others of their Accomplices were hang'd, after being drawn on Hurdles to the Place of Execution; and such of them as had robbed Churches or Convents, had their Hands first cut off. The Letters from Cadix say, that the Indulto of 20 per Cent. upon the Effects that arrived from the Indies by the Ships El Fuerte and la Princesse, has been settled, besides a Present to the Value of 25,000 Pistoles for the future Queen of the Two Sicilies, which will amount to about one and 3-4ths per Cent.

Hague, March 11. N. S. We have Advice by our last Letters from Vienna, that M. Hamel Bruyninx, Minister of the States General at that Court, was dead there after a long Illness. The States of Holland are to meet To-morrow.

An Infallible CURE,

For Barrenness in Women, and Impotency in Men, By Superlative ENLIVENING DROPS; Which in a few Days render both Sexes Procreative in a most wonderful Manner.

HUNDREDS of Ladies who were deem'd incurably Barren, and very many who thought themselves too old to bear Children, have immediately conceived after taking three or four Doses of them only, and vast Numbers of GENTLEMEN by taking them, have presently become capable of propagating their Species, who before, thro' either Imbecility or Age, imagin'd it impossible.

They almost instantly renovate the vital Ferment of the Blood, and Juices, rectify the languid State of all the Fluids, restore, and increase the Spirits, invigorate the Nerves, restore juvenile Warmth, and cause a sparkling Gladness and ardent Courage to flow in the Heart, and expand itself thro' the whole human System, so as sensibly to enliven and invigorate all the animal Faculties, and corroborate or strengthen the whole Body, as well as the Part appropriated to Generation, and do infallibly cure Barrenness in one Sex, and Impotency in the other, from what Cause soever proceeding, as Thousands have experienced.

They are also pleasant to take, are Cordial to the Stomach, create an Appetite, and procure a good Digestion, beyond any thing known in the World. And are to be had only at Mr. RADFORD's Toy-shop, at the Rose and Crown against St. Clement's Church-Yard, in the Strand, Price 5 s. the Bottle, with Directions.

LONDON Printed for T. COOPER, at the Globe in Pater-noster-Row.
